2. On 17 and 21 September 1950 all units located in Camp Werder near Jueterbog marched to the parade grounds. The commanding officers, colonels or lieutenants, colonels, marched at the head of their units. They were followed by three-man color guards. Each unit consisted of about 150 officers and 1,000 troops.

25X1(1) [redacted] Comments.
(1) [redacted] belongs to a tank unit in Jueterbog of the 14th Gds Mecz Div.

(2) A military ceremony involving all units with their flags, as was similarly observed in Stendal on 18 September 1950. [redacted]. A report from Potsdam stated that, on 20 and 21 September 1950, the local cooperative store was supplied with brandy to be distributed to the troops on Armored Forces Day. [redacted]. It is believed that Armored Forces Day was also observed in Camp Werder on 17 and 21 September 1950 with delegations from all tank regiments of the 6th and 7th Gds Tank Divs in Werder participating. This assumption is strengthened by [redacted] on the flags, standing for the 51st, 52d and 53d Gds Tank Regts of the 6th Gds Tank Div, and [redacted] standing for the 54th Gds Tank Regt of the 7th Gds Tank Div.
